

Whistle Blower Policy

'Whistle Blower' means an Employee or Any person associated with the company making a Disclosure under the Policy.

1. Introduction

1.1 Lakshachandi Realty ("Company") believes in conduct of its affairs in a fair and transparent manner while maintaining high standards of governance, personal ethics and seeks to induce and recognize the virtues of honesty, integrity and accountability with ethical behavior and adherence to laws, amongst its employees in the course of discharge of their duties and responsibilities.

1.2 The Company has formulated a code of conduct ("Code") and professional standards and conduct policy requiring the Directors, officers and employees to observe high standards of business and personal ethics, which in addition to enforcing the above belief of the Company, serve as a guideline for addressing issues faced by the employees during the course of their employment. The Code has been hosted on the website of the Company.

1.3 The Company is committed to develop a culture where employees are encouraged to raise issues observed by them relating to unethical/ unfair/ unacceptable behavior or practices and to report instances of any fraud/ misconduct/ violation of Code or employment policies without any fear of reprisal or victimization for whistle-blowing in good faith, without necessarily informing their supervisors.

1.4 In all cases the Company or an authorized representative retains the prerogative to determine whether/when circumstances warrant an investigation and, in conformity with this Policy and applicable laws and regulations, the appropriate investigative process to be employed.

2. Objective

The objective of the Policy is as follows:

- 2.1 Define the scope and applicability of the Policy.
- 2.2 To determine the procedure of reporting/ disclosing any actual and suspected instances of unethical behavior, fraud or violation of the Code or employment policy etc.
- 2.3 To inform and assure about the protection available to an Employee making any Disclosure under the Policy.
- 2.4 Mechanism for dealing with the Disclosure.

3. Applicability

3.1 The Policy extends to the Company and its subsidiaries and their joint ventures.

3.2 The Policy applies to the following:

All Employees

All Directors of the Company

Employees of other agencies deployed for the Company's / its subsidiary's / joint venture's activities, whether working from any of the Company's / subsidiary's / joint venture's offices or any other location.

3.2 The Policy covers improper activities, which may be in the nature of:

Abuse of authority, Breach of contract, Negligence causing substantial and specific danger to public health and safety, Manipulation of company data/records, Financial irregularities, including fraud, or suspected fraud. Criminal offence, Pilferation of confidential/propriety information, Deliberate violation of law/regulation, Wastage/misappropriation of company funds/assets, Breach of Code or code of conduct for prevention of insider trading or employment rules. Any other unethical, biased, favored, imprudent event.

4. Disclosures and Disciplinary Action

4.1 The Disclosure should be factual and neither speculative nor conclusive in nature.

4.2 Personal issues or grievances shall not be entertained under the Policy.

4.3 Genuine Whistle Blowers are accorded complete protection from any kind of unfair treatment that they may be exposed to on account of the reporting of the Disclosure. However, any abuse of this protection will warrant Disciplinary Action.

4.4 Protection under this Policy would mean protection from Disciplinary Action only in relation to the reported Disclosures. Disciplinary Action arising out of false or bogus allegations made by a Whistle Blower knowing it to be false or bogus or with a mala fide intention or in matters others that the reported Disclosures shall not be covered under protection offered under point 4.3 above.

4.5 Whistle Blowers, who make three Disclosures, which have been all subsequently found to be mala fide, frivolous, baseless, malicious, or reported otherwise than in good faith, will be disqualified from reporting further Disclosures under this Policy. In respect of such Whistle Blowers, the Company would reserve its right to take/recommend appropriate Disciplinary Action.

5. Process for reporting a Disclosure

6.2 This Policy covers reporting of both actual and suspected instances of unethical behavior, actual or suspected fraud or violation of the Code or employment policy etc.

7. Manner of dealing with the Disclosure

7.1 On receipt of the Disclosure, the Chief Legal Officer, shall do an initial enquiry of the Disclosure and thereafter based on the merits of the Disclosure, may refer the Disclosure to an Investigator or in alternate dismiss the same, within a period of 15 days of the receipt of the Disclosure.

7.2 The Chief Legal Officer / Investigator may in their discretion, consider involving other competent person(s) other than those interested in the Disclosure for the purpose of initial enquiry/ investigation.

7.3 The Chief Legal Officer / Investigator shall have access to and have the right to call for information/ document as may in their discretion, consider necessary for the purpose of initial enquiry/ investigation.

7.4 All Employees shall co-operate with the Chief Legal Officer / Investigator during initial enquiry/ investigation.

7.5 The decision to conduct an investigation taken by the Chief Legal Officer is by itself not an accusation and is to be treated as a neutral fact-finding process. The decision of Chief Legal Officer shall be free from any prejudice or presumption of guilt.

7.6 The identity of a Subject will be kept confidential to the extent possible given the legitimate needs of law and the investigation.

7.7 Subject will normally be informed of the allegations at the outset of a formal investigation and have opportunities for providing their inputs during the investigation.

7.8 Subject shall have a duty to co-operate with the Chief Legal Officer Investigators during initial enquiry/ investigation to the extent that such co-operation will not compromise self-incrimination protections available under the applicable laws.

7.9 Subject has a right to consult with a person or persons of their choice, other than the Chief Legal Officer / Investigators and/or the Whistle Blower.

7.10 Subject has a responsibility not to interfere with the investigation. Evidence shall not be withheld, destroyed or tampered with, and witnesses shall not be influenced, coached, threatened or intimidated by the Subject.

7.11 Unless there are compelling reasons not to do so, Subject will be given the opportunity to respond to material findings contained in an investigation report. No allegation of wrongdoing against a Subject shall be considered as maintainable unless there is good evidence in support of the allegation.

7.12 Subject has a right to be informed of the outcome of the investigation. If allegations are not sustained, the Subject should be consulted as to whether public disclosure of the investigation results would be in the best interest of the Subject and the Company.

7.13 The investigation shall be completed normally within 45 days of the receipt of the Disclosure.

7.14 If the Investigator upholds the allegations against Subject, the Chief Legal Officer shall recommend to the management to take such Disciplinary / corrective Action against the Subject as he/ she may deem appropriate, subject to the employee/ personnel policy/ procedures. Alternatively, depending upon the seriousness of the proven allegations, the Chief Legal Officer may refer the matter to the Board of Directors or any authorized committee thereof.

8. Protection of Whistle Blower

8.1 No unfair treatment, discrimination, harassment, victimization or any other unfair employment practice like retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination/suspension of service, Disciplinary Action, transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion, or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistle Blower's right to continue to perform his duties/functions including making further Disclosure will be meted out to a Whistle Blower by virtue of his/her having reported a Disclosure under this Policy. The Company will take steps to minimize difficulties, which the Whistle Blower may experience as a result of making the Disclosure. All reasonable efforts will be made to protect genuine Whistle Blowers.

8.2 A Whistle Blower may report any violation of the above point 8.1 to the Legal Officer who shall investigate into the same and recommend suitable action to the management.

8.3 The Whistle Blower will be given procedural advice and guidance etc. in case the Whistle Blower is required to give evidence in criminal or disciplinary proceedings.

8.4 The identity of the Whistle Blower shall be kept confidential to the extent possible and permitted under law. Whistle Blowers are cautioned that their identity may become known for reasons outside the control of the Chief Legal Officer (e.g. during investigations carried out by Investigators).

8.5 Any other Employee assisting in the investigation shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistle Blower.
